

Our Seattle session on November 19th is full.

Due to the growing interest, we've added another Seattle session

WASHINGTON STATE
OFFICE OF MINORITY & WOMEN'S BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Plan To Win ... Workshop For Consultants

Understanding the Request for Proposal (RFP) and Request For Qualifications/Quotation (RFQQ) Documents; Preparing a Winning Proposal

Certified firms are invited to attend a workshop that focuses on understanding the terms and conditions of a Request for Proposal/Request for Qualifications/ Quotation (RFP/RFQQ). Several state agencies will be refreshing their consultant rosters during 2010. Now is the time to ensure that your proposal not only meets all the minimum response criteria, but will receive the maximum evaluation points.

We will review an actual RFQQ issued by a Washington State agency and provide guidance in preparing a response to an RFP/RFQQ . You will learn about:

✓ Pre-proposal Conferences	✓ Convenience/Mandatory Contracts
✓ Work Order/Work Request	✓ General Terms and Conditions
✓ Letters of Intent	✓ Debriefings
✓ Protests	✓ WEBS Registrations

OMWBE has invited contracting officers from Departments of Financial Management, Veterans Affairs, Transportation, Personnel and Information Services to co-present this workshop with OMWBE. They will provide information about their agency's specific contracting procedures. You will be able to ask these contracting officers specific questions about their agency's procedures.

In response to the growing interest, we have added another RFP/FRQ session in the Seattle area:

This workshop will be presented in Seattle on the following date:

December 15, 2009 - Seattle

U.S. Small Business Administration

2401 Fourth Avenue

Session Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm

Registration or Questions: Contact Momi Friedlander at 360-704-1192 or momicf@omwbe.wa.gov

Early registration is recommended as space is limited.

Please plan to attend the workshop
